REJECTION OF UNINSURED MOTORISTS COVERAGE OR SELECTION OF LIMITS (Colorado)

Colorado law permits you, the insured named in the policy, to reject the Uninsured Motorists Coverage for bodily injury or to select a limit for such coverage higher than the required minimum financial responsibility limit, $25,000 each person/$50,000 each accident ($50,000 each accident if written on a single limit basis) equal to the limit for Bodily Injury Coverage in the policy. Uninsured Motorists Coverage for bodily injury provides insurance for the protection of persons insured under the policy who are legally entitled to recover damages from the owners or operators of uninsured motor vehicles because of bodily injury, sickness or disease, including death resulting therefrom.

Bodily Injury Uninsured Motorists Coverage includes coverage for damage for bodily injury or death that an insured is legally entitled to collect from the owner or driver of an underinsured motor vehicle. An underinsured motor vehicle is a vehicle which is insured or bonded for bodily injury or death at the time of an accident.

If you reject the Uninsured Motorists Coverage or wish to select the limit for Bodily Injury Coverage in your policy to apply to Uninsured Motorists Coverage, such should be indicated below by marking the appropriate ballot box.

If you elect not to reject the Uninsured Motorists Coverage for bodily injury liability, you may also purchase Uninsured Motorists property damage liability coverage for the protection of persons insured under the policy who are legally entitled to recover damages from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle because of property damage to the motor vehicle described in the policy arising out of the maintenance or use of the uninsured motor vehicle. The property damage liability portion of the Uninsured Motorists Coverage may be subject to a deductible at the option of the insurance company. This coverage does not apply to a vehicle if insurance for collision damage is provided under the policy.

Your selection of the property damage liability options should be indicated below by marking the appropriate ballot box.

The undersigned insured (and each of them) —

(Applicable item marked "X")
