SURETY DIVISION

CONTRACT & COMMERCIAL SURETY BOND OPTIONS

Benefits of this Program
Contractors and Principals require bonding in order to qualify for many public and private projects and obligations. Philadelphia Insurance Companies, (PHLY) recognizes this need and offers a comprehensive portfolio of surety bond products for well qualified Contractors and Commercial Surety accounts. The goal of our Surety department is to be the premier surety solution for America’s small to large sized contractors and Commercial Accounts. We achieve this goal through our strong relationships with our agents and by offering a financially superior product underwritten by a carefully selected and highly experienced surety team.

Strong Relationships
We value ourselves as business partners with the contractor and surety agent. We consistently strive to understand the contractor’s and commercial accounts and business while developing our relationship. Through these strong relationships, we offer competitive rates and sound work programs for established contractors and commercial accounts as a team. We present options to provide contractor’s and commercial accounts with the chance to compete for projects and support their obligations. Thus, we help qualified contractor’s and commercial accounts thrive so that more American jobs may be created.

Expertise and Experience
PHLY’s Contract and Commercial Surety Home Office underwriting team in conjunction with our Surety Regional Office underwriting staff have the experience and depth to manage your Contract and Commercial Surety needs from the small transactional to the most complex surety needs. We have the expertise to develop unique bond programs and partner with agents to form a positive and lasting relationship with your surety clients. In addition, our risk management services and claims staff have the valuable experience required to nurture relationships, anticipate results, and quickly mitigate issues as they occur.
