

CLAIM SCENARIOS

MOTORSPORTS

$1,000,000 +

Race car display in public parking lot - during burn out, the car spun out of control and struck the crowd, killing 6 people.

$1,000,000 +

Inexperienced go kart racer tried moving go kart from garage to track. Driver struck a group of children playing near the garage and paralyzed a 12 year old playing in the area.

$1,000,000 +

12 year old was killed while racing a go kart at 70 MPH - missed turn and struck the fence. Go kart flew 100 feet in the air. Claim blames track design for the accident.

$500,000 +

Accident on track caused tire to fly off of the car and into stands - striking a spectator. Claimed track had inadequate barriers in place.

$639,000

RV used to transport race car burned in fire believed to be electrical in nature - total loss of RV.

$57,000

Claimant tripped and fell in a lot at a race track. No obvious faults in parking lot.

$96,000

Auto claim for motorsports team - insured driver ran red light and struck other vehicle.

$55,000

Fire damage to RV used to transport race team - claim appears to be arson but no persons were found who caused the fire.

$50,000

Spectator struck in eye by rock thrown from race track by car - claims track was not cleared sufficiently before race.

$35,000

Volunteer firefighter on track to help put out car fire, struck by another race car.

ThinkPHLY | 800.873.4552 | PHLY.com

Philadelphia Insurance Companies is the marketing name for the insurance company subsidiaries of the Philadelphia Consolidated Holding Corp., a Member of the Tokio Marine Group. Coverage(s) described may not be available in all states and are subject to Underwriting and certain coverage(s) may be provided by a surplus lines insurer. Surplus lines insurers do not generally participate in state guaranty funds and insureds are therefore not protected by such funds. | © 2015 Philadelphia Consolidating Holding Corp., All Rights Reserved.

