CLAIM SCENARIOS

$150,000 General Liability

A worker that was staffed in a temporary position by the Insured was attempting to move a pallet. He struck and damaged the client's water line and property.

$300,000 Employment Practices Liability

The EEOC sued a temporary staffing agency for screening out applicants with disabilities by requesting that they complete a medical questionnaire.

$60,000 Errors & Omissions

A recruiting firm filled a position for a branch manager. Shortly after being on the job, the manager was fired by the client company. The client company sued the personnel agency because sales declined. They alleged that the manager was not properly screened to determine that he was a poor performer.

$250,000 Crime

An applicant was placed in a temporary secretarial position. She began embezzling funds from the client company. The crime was discovered two years later.
